IMPEACHMENT by Mark Spivak
Excerpt

The President spread aerial photos of the detention camps on the desk.

"Did your kids ever go to summer camp?"

"A long time ago, yes."

"Well, mine did too. And when I look at these pictures, there are a number of things missing. There's no baseball diamond. There's no soccer field or archery range. There's no swimming pool. These aren't supposed to be summer camps, Curt. And you don't need to be a G-man to figure that out."

"Of course they're not. With all due respect, sir, I've been around politics longer than you have. And there's obviously a pattern here. There's some connection between the Angels of Democracy and whoever built these camps."

"Agreed. But since nobody can tell me what it is, it really doesn't matter."

"Well, there's that study commissioned by the Democratic National Committee that establishes a link between the Angels of Democracy and the Hafts."

"I've read it. But it doesn't connect the dots between the Hafts, the Angels and whoever built the camps."

"This whole immigration operation was planned by someone, and it cost a huge amount of money. It had to be backed by somebody like the Haft brothers. No one else would have the resources to do it."
