AWAKENING WITH ANGELS: ARE YOU AWAKENING YET?

When I was in France, I encountered a small, bright green grasshopper on my bare skin. This story happened in the middle of the night just before bedtime. I was lying in bed, my back against the white pillows as I listened to music. At that moment I was sad with emotional thoughts spinning inside my head. Suddenly, I was spiritually guided to turn my head to look at my right shoulder. Then, I noticed a small, bright green grasshopper resting on my bare upper arm. I was shocked, but I didn't panic because it looked magical. The first thought that came to my mind was how did it get inside the bedroom as the windows were closed. It was bizarre; however, my intuition guided me to understand why the grasshopper was there. It appeared to give me comfort as love is painful. After spending a silent moment with the grasshopper, I picked it up with my left hand and I opened the window of the bedroom to free it outside, with a good night. I felt blessed to receive an Angelic sign of spiritual comfort from my Guidance Angels that sad night. Whenever you see a green grasshopper, it is a spiritual insect totem with positive meanings.

Right after I came back home to Canada from France, I had a visitor. A ladybug was inside my house. This story happened on a sunny morning. After my jet lag rest, I went downstairs to the main floor in the kitchen to enjoy the sunlight. I stood and stared through the glazed French doors in the kitchen toward my backyard.

My intuition guided me to look down to my bare feet. I saw a small ladybug beside my right foot on the white porcelain kitchen tile. I picked up the ladybug and placed it on my left palm. I had a silent spiritual moment with the ladybug. No selfie, but I did take a picture of it on my palm. My thought was that this was another spiritual insect that flew down from heaven. I freed the small ladybug outside in my backyard. It was another Angelic sign of spiritual comfort from my Guidance Angels as they knew the pain that I went through with my love life. I felt so Divinely blessed, again. My intuition guided me to do more research on insect totems to understand their meanings and the reasons for their presence in my journey to spiritual growth. Every time I encountered these insect totems, I am reminded that I am never alone. The Angels are always with me. I feel Divinely enlightened.
